

- Talent online

Start Teaching - ICT Academy Instructor Operation Guide

How to create a class?

You have 3 ways to add students: Recommended Search a class Through the class Invitation Code by one in the student information column on the class details page, regardless of whether the class is approved. If the instructor approves the approval, the user joins the class and academy at the same

3. You can also go to the Class Details page to import students in batches or add a student's Huawei

Note: A student must have created a Huawei account and associated the account with an academy.

Add Students

system will automatically send the class invitation code to your email address which associated with your Huawei account. You can forward the class

After successfully creating the class, the time.

account to add the student to a class

Otherwise, the student cannot be added to the class invitation code to your students, they will complete the Huawei account registration and join the class by invitation code. You can also sharing the class invitation code with the students on the screen. Note: The system will automatically associate the student with the college.

Invitation code

jzsusk Copy Class Invitation You can click the "Invitation Code" and share it to your students on an large screen. on the platform Five minutes after the class is created, students can search for the class on the "Learning" page of Huawei Talent online platform and complete the class registration. Note: Students are required to complete the association with the college in advance

Home > User Center > Class Management > 20210201

register the Huawei account and

You can also import students by "Add One by One" or "Batch

the list of students

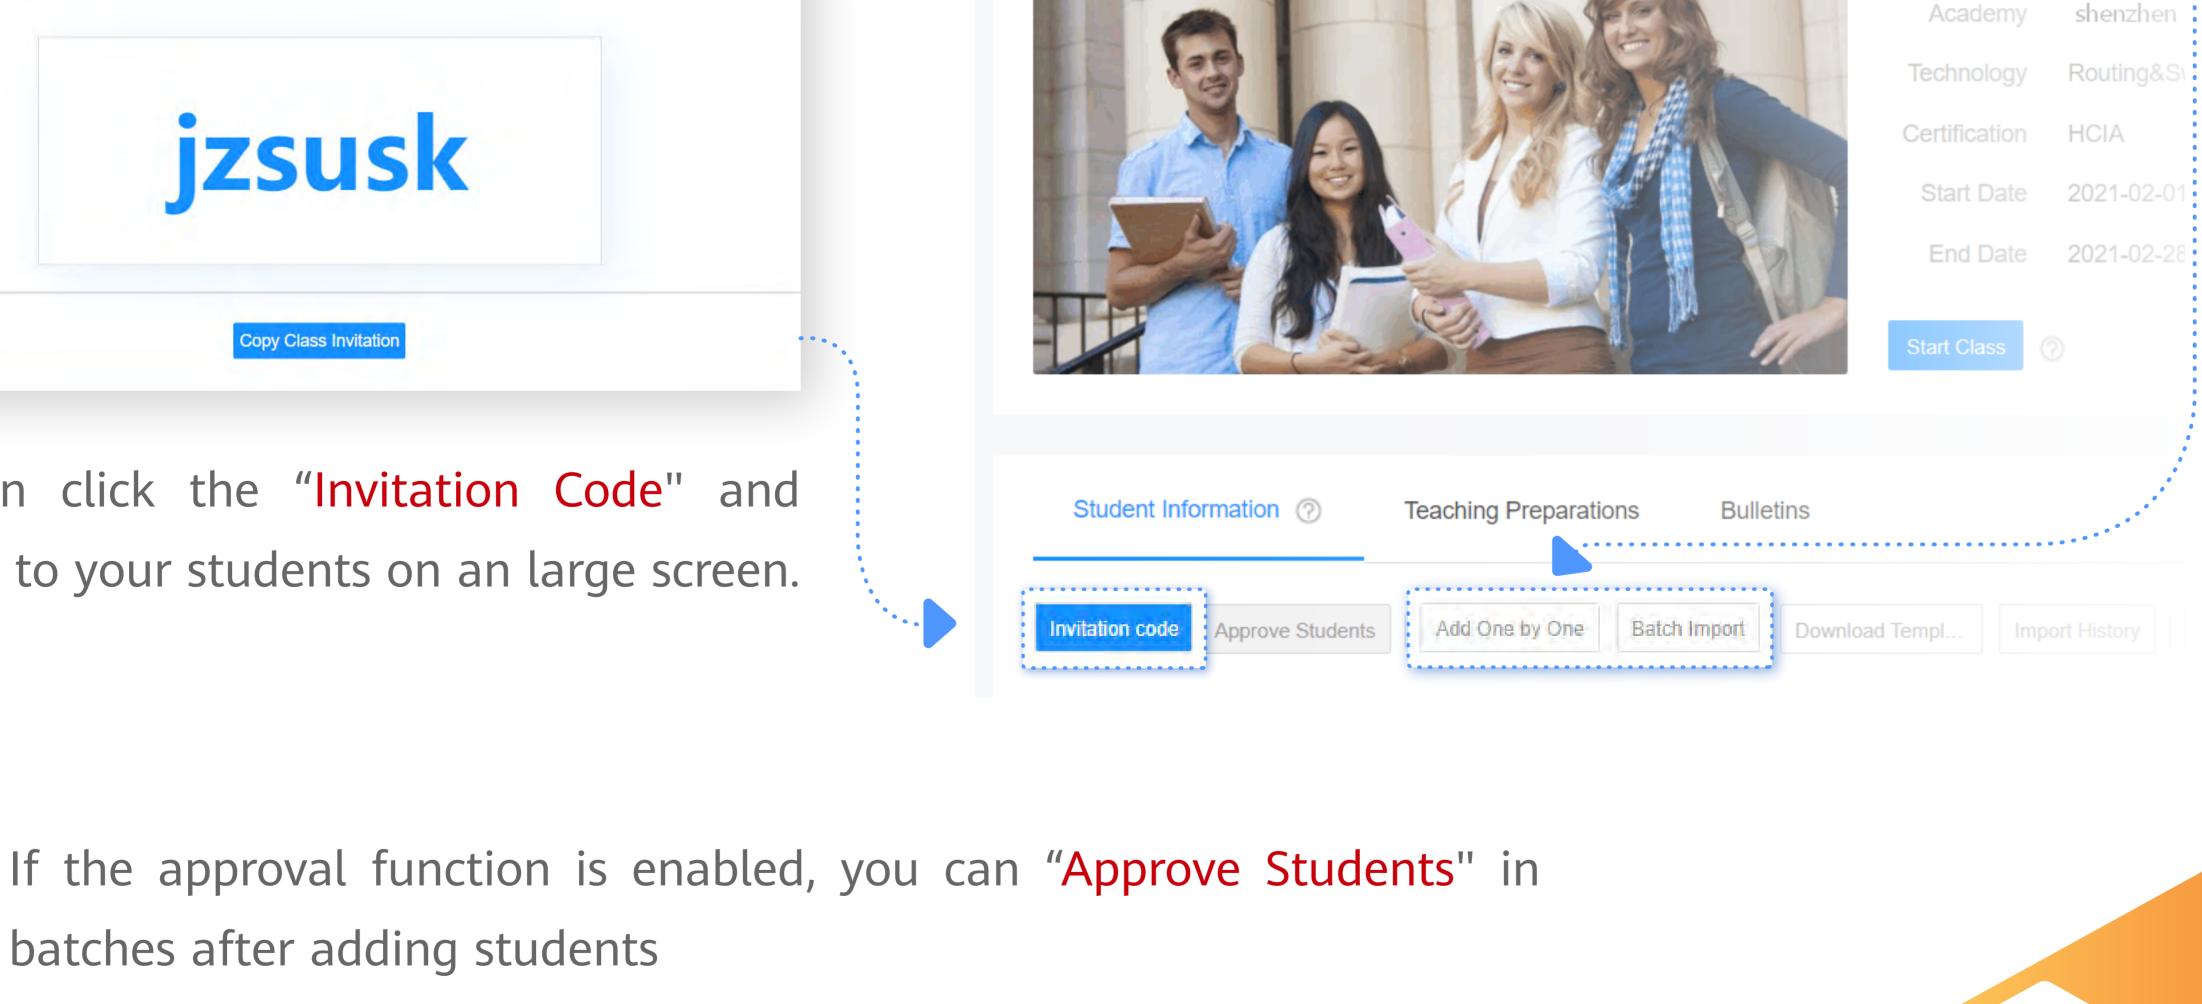

Teachers import

Once the class is created, you can click"Add Students".

Import". Note: Students are required to register the Huawei account and complete the association with the college in advance

20210201

Prepare Materials

Start Teaching

